Director’s Report – Darlene Alessi

Personnel:
- The Director reported that Stan Duda, circulation clerk, will be out on disability until September.
- The Director attended the New York Library Association’s Spring on The Hill advocacy event on May 17th.
- 23 staff members attended the first staff CPR/AED training and basic first aid.
- The Director announced that she will be hosting the Adult Bingo program on June 8th at 12:30. The Director assured the Board that the Bingo program is strictly for enjoyment, NOT gaming or gambling.

Building:
- Bertussi’s Plumbing installed the new water heater.
- Artistic Floors began work in the children’s area. The carpeting is on backorder for the adult area, so installation will be sometime in late June.
- An audit was done through RCLS for the Library’s computer equipment, no issues were found. The Wi Fi was updated as well.
- Woodcraft & Willow will be refurbishing two Stickley rocking chairs and two benches.
- All weeding of the collection in the adult section has been completed. Shifting the CD collection in the Media section is in progress.
- The Director is working with Amy La Rocca on cost savings in the Reference collection standing orders and serials.
- The Director reported that she is inquiring about the possibility of using an architectural firm for creating the makerspace. One such firm is in New City, they provide pro bono services and will be able to be of assistance next year.

The Director announced that she will apply for a grant for the cost of the new gates and installation of all components (Gates, self-checks, lockers). If the grant is accepted it will cover 50% of the cost of $68,104 that was approved by the Board.

Committee Reports:
~Building and Grounds – Mario F. Pensa

Mario F. Pensa reported that the freon leak and repair has been resolved.

~Finance Committee – Warren E. Berbit, Mario F. Pensa, Donalee Berard

Mario F. Pensa reported that that the Finance Committee should meet to discuss a few details, one to be the Board Designated Net Assets Reserves Policy.

~Personnel Committee – Warren E. Berbit, Karen Bash-Romaner, James J. Galvin, Michael Minevich

James J. Galvin announced that the Personnel Committee has a report to propose to the Board that best be done during Executive Session.
Michael Minevich noted that the Board joins the staff once a year for the staff barbecue event. He proposed that perhaps the Board can join the staff during a staff training day as well if it is possible.

Donalee Berard added that the staff is welcomed to occasionally come to a Board meeting and share with the Board their job duties and responsibilities.

James J. Galvin added that it is a great idea to join the staff for lunch during a staff training day when everyone is most likely in attendance.

~Policy Committee –Karen Bash-Romaner, Erb Cooper, James J. Galvin

President Craig H. Long announced the Approval of 11 Updated Library Policies will be presented under New Business.

Director Darlene Alessi handed out additional updated policies to the committee for their review and presentation at the next Board meeting.
